

ASSIGNMENT 5

Textbook Assignment: Chapter 7, "Military Courtesy" and Chapter 8. "Honors and Ceremonies," pages 7-1 through 8-14.

- 5-1. What are considered to be the two basic foundations of military courtesy among officers?
1. Honor and respect
 2. Custom and tradition
 3. Courtesy and politeness
 4. Precedence and defense to seniors
- 5-2. If your commanding officer (CO) gives you an order that you do not understand, what action should you take?
1. Immediately ask the CO to clarify the order
 2. Ask the advice of your subordinates
 3. Carry out the order as well as you can although you do not thoroughly understand it
 4. Wait an hour or two and return and ask the CO to explain the order to you
- 5-3. As a junior officer, which of the following statements made by your executive officer, concerning you, should you be most pleased to hear?
1. You are witty and humorous in the wardroom
 2. You can always be depended upon to get any assigned task completed satisfactorily
 3. You do a fine job when you feel like it
 4. Your subordinates like you a lot because you go on liberty with them
- 5-4. If you receive an order for your division which you personally think is detrimental to the morale of your crew, what action should you take?
1. Apologize to the division when you give them the order
 2. Explain to the division that while they have to carry out the order, you do not believe in it
 3. Pass the order on and see that it is properly executed
 4. Change the order to make it more to the liking of the crew
- 5-5. What attitude should underline the relationship between an officer and his or her subordinates?
1. Familiarity
 2. Mutual respect
 3. Intellectualism
 4. Knowing distrust
- 5-6. If subordinates become too familiar and fail to heed the proper distinction between junior and senior, normally, which of the following person(s) is/are at fault?
1. The junior
 2. The senior
 3. Both 1 and 2 above
 4. The commanding officer

- 5-7. Which of the following persons uses his or her expertise and skill to train junior officers and accomplish tasks assigned to a division?
1. Department head
 2. Executive officer
 3. Command master chief
 4. Leading chief petty officer
- 5-8. If you have encountered problems in communicating with a subordinate in your division, which of the following individuals should you see first for assistance?
1. Department head
 2. Executive officer
 3. Commanding officer
 4. Command master chief
- 5-9. In general, which of the following ways is preferable to address a senior officer?
1. Use the impersonal "sir" or "ma'am"
 2. Use his or her title only
 3. Use his or her title and last name only
 4. Use his or her title and first and last names
- 5-10. Lieutenant Commander Boate is commanding officer of the FF-1090. How should he be addressed by his crew?
1. Lieutenant Commander Boate
 2. Commander Boate
 3. Mr. Boate
 4. Captain
- 5-11. What is the correct manner of informally addressing Frost, an E-9 petty officer?
1. Chief
 2. Chief Frost
 3. Master chief Frost
 4. Master chief petty officer Frost
- 5-12. When directed by a male commanding officer to have the gig alongside in 10 minutes. the OOD should reply,
1. "It will be there on time, sir."
 2. "Yes, sir."
 3. "Aye, aye, sir."
 4. "Very well, sir."
- 5-13. Which part of a ship has always been considered the ceremonial area?
1. Bridge
 2. Quarterdeck
 3. Main control
 4. The Captain's inport cabin
- 5-14. Which of the following personnel must adhere to the quarterdeck rules of etiquette?
1. Guests of the commanding officer
 2. Officers
 3. Enlisted personnel
 4. Both 2 and 3 above
- 5-15. What is the proper sequence of events for an officer to board a ship, in uniform, to which he is not assigned?
1. Halt at the gangway, salute the OOD salute the ensign, and say "I report my return aboard, sir/ma'am"
 2. Halt at the gangway, salute the OOD salute the ensign, and say "I request permission to come aboard, sir/ma'am"
 3. Halt at the gangway, salute the ensign, salute the OOD and say "I report my return aboard , sir/ma'am"
 4. Halt at the gangway, salute the ensign, salute the OOD and say "I request permission to come aboard, sir/ma'am"

5-16. Some ships assign first class or chief petty officers as officer of the deck. Why is an officer required to initiate a salute to an enlisted person standing the OOD watch?

1. Because the OOD is senior to all personnel except the commanding officer
2. Because it sets a good example for enlisted personnel to follow
3. Because you are saluting the position and authority represented
4. Because the OOD is a direct representative of the executive officer

QUESTIONS 5-17 THROUGH 5-19 ARE BASED ON THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION: YOU ARE THE OOD ON THE QUARTERDECK OF THE USS VULCAN (AR-5), ANCHORED IN HAMPTON ROADS, VIRGINIA. YOU HAVE THE 2000 TO 2400 WATCH. THE COMMANDING OFFICER IS ASHORE AND YOU ARE EXPECTING HIM TO RETURN DURING YOUR WATCH.

5-17. A boat is seen approaching your ship. What hail does your quartermaster of the watch make?

1. "USS VULCAN"
2. "Boat ahoy!"
3. "What ship?"
4. "Hello there!"

5-18. The coxswain of the approaching boat replies, "Hello." What does this reply indicate?

1. The boat is not going to make your ship
2. There are only enlisted personnel aboard
3. The commanding officer is aboard
4. The boat is inbound for the landing

5-19. If the commanding officer had been aboard, the coxswain would have replied,

1. "Captain, U.S. Navy, arriving"
2. "Commanding officer"
3. "Attention"
4. "VULCAN"

5-20. An example of proper wardroom etiquette during peacetime is described in which of the following situations?

1. Dressing in casual clothes on Sunday afternoon
2. Talking shop or discussing religion and politics
3. Introducing guests to wardroom officers
4. Being continuously late for meals

5-21. The military salute illustrates all EXCEPT which of the following attitudes?

1. Respect
2. Courtesy
3. Servitude
4. Comradeship

5-22. Of the following personnel, which one is NOT permitted the privilege of rendering a salute?

1. A prisoner
2. A wounded sailor
3. An officer riding in a car
4. The coxswain of a whaleboat

5-23. You should be at attention when saluting EXCEPT when

1. walking
2. sitting
3. in a hurry
4. returning a junior's salute

5-24. Which of the following actions tends to degrade the salute?

1. Saluting with a cigarette in the hand
2. Saluting while proceeding on the double
3. Avoiding the gaze of the one being saluted
4. Each of the above

QUESTIONS 5-25 THROUGH 5-28 ARE BASED ON THE FOLLOWING SITUATION:

Lieutenant Brush, the operations officer of the USS HULL (DD-945), leaves the ship for the day at 1600. The ship is moored at Pier 21, Destroyer-Submarine Piers, Norfolk, Virginia. On the quarterdeck he informs the OOD Ensign Boat, that he has the executive officer's permission to leave the ship, salutes the OOD and the national ensign, and crosses the brow to the pier. On the pier he passes a large working party unloading stores from a truck. Farther up the pier he passes another working party loading torpedoes on board a destroyer. Since he is early, he decides to walk out to the main gate on Hampton Boulevard to wait for his wife to pick him up. While proceeding up the street, he meets a commander and a master chief petty officer walking together. He overtakes and passes a lieutenant commander going in the same direction. At the gate there is a Marine sentry and a government security policeman directing traffic. As he arrives at the gate, Commander, Cruiser-Destroyer Group 8 (COMCRUDESGRU8), Rear Admiral Frost, arrives in his official car. With the admiral are his chief of staff, Captain Boate, the admiral's aide, and the driver, a Marine corporal.

5-25. Were Lieutenant Brush's actions correctly executed before he crossed the brow?

1. Yes, because he saluted the OOD first and then the national ensign
2. Yes, because he did not leave the ship before 1600
3. No, because he should have saluted the national ensign first and then the OOD
4. No, because he outranked the OOD and therefore did not need to salute

5-26. Which of the following statements demonstrates the correct saluting sequence which occurred when Lieutenant Brush met the commander and the master chief?

1. The master chief saluted Lieutenant Brush, who in turn saluted the commander
2. Lieutenant Brush saluted the commander and the master chief
3. Lieutenant Brush rendered the salute to the commander and it was returned simultaneously by the commander and the master chief
4. Lieutenant Brush saluted the commander, and, after a slight interval, the master chief saluted Lieutenant Brush

5-27. When Lieutenant Brush saw the admiral's car, he stopped, came to attention, and rendered a salute. Everyone in the car returned the salute EXCEPT the

1. admiral
2. chief of staff
3. admiral's aide
4. Marine corporal

- 5-28. When Lieutenant Brush overtook the lieutenant commander, he did so by using which of the following procedures?
1. Passing on the right, saluting, and asking, "Permission to pass, sir?"
 2. Approaching on the left, saluting, and asking, "By your leave, sir?"
 3. Approaching on the right, saluting, and asking, "By your leave, sir?"
 4. Passing on the left, saluting, and asking, "Request permission to pass, sir?"
- 5-29. When the national anthem is being played, on which of the following occasions should you, as a naval member, render the hand salute?
1. When you are in ranks at morning quarters, but are not the officer in charge
 2. When you are in a motor launch, in uniform, but are not the senior officer
 3. When you step out on a weather deck during morning colors
 4. When you hear the national anthem on television in your home
- 5-30. Which of the following flags or pennants may be flown above the national ensign?
1. Church pennant
 2. Commissioning pennant
 3. State flag of a ship's home port
 4. Flag of the President of the United States
- 5-31. The Navy conducts honors and ceremonies on many different occasions. Which, if any, of the following publications list specific guidelines and instructions for their conduct?
1. Manual for Courts-Martial
 2. United States Navy Regulations
 3. Standard Organization and Regulations of the U.S. Navy
 4. None of the above
- 5-32. On occasions when a foreign national anthem is performed with the national anthem of the United States, which anthem is performed first?
1. Always the U.S. national anthem
 2. Always the foreign national anthem
 3. The foreign national anthem except at morning colors
 4. The U.S. national anthem except at morning colors
- 5-33. What is the appropriate action for the driver of a vehicle to take when morning colors are sounded?
1. No action is required
 2. The vehicle should stop and all occupants should salute while seated
 3. The vehicle should stop and the senior person in the vehicle should salute
 4. The vehicle should stop and all occupants should remain seated at attention
- 5-34. The traditional selection, "Hail to the Chief," is a musical tribute to which of the following persons?
1. A Navy flag officer
 2. A foreign chief of state
 3. The Chief of Naval Operations
 4. The President of the United States

- 5-35. Which of the following naval ships or stations fire gun salutes?
1. Ships only
 2. Shore stations only
 3. All ships and shore stations
 4. Ships and stations designated by the Secretary of the Navy
- 5-36. On Monday, a ship displaying the flag of the President of the United States arrives at a naval base under command of a rear admiral for a 4-day visit. On Wednesday the station commander's flag is broken as vice admiral. What gun salutes are required of the base?
1. A 21-gun salute on the ship's arrival only
 2. A 21-gun salute when breaking the flag of the vice admiral
 3. A 21-gun salute on the ship's arrival and a 17-gun salute on breaking the vice admiral's flag
 4. A 21-gun salute on the ship's arrival and a 15-gun salute on breaking the vice admiral's flag
- 5-37. Gun salutes should be fired for each official visit by U.S. naval officers only if they are entitled to
1. 13 guns or more
 2. 15 guns or more
 3. 17 guns or more
 4. 19 guns or more
- 5-38. A flag officer assumes command and becomes the senior officer present. A gun salute shall be fired by which of the following commands?
1. All ships in port
 2. The former senior officer present
 3. The flag officer's flagship
 4. Both 2 and 3 above
- 5-39. Normally, gun salutes should NOT be fired at which of the following times?
1. On Sunday
 2. Between sunset and sunrise
 3. Prior to 0800
 4. All of the above
- 5-40. At what maximum range would a boat be considered to have passed "close aboard?"
1. 400 yards
 2. 500 yards
 3. 600 yards
 4. 700 yards
- 5-41. A boat displaying the flag of an Assistant Secretary of the Navy is passing close aboard a Navy ship. Passing honors to be rendered do NOT include which of the following situations?
1. Man the rail
 2. Four Ruffles and Flourishes
 3. Playing the Admiral's March
 4. Hand salutes rendered by all persons in view on deck
- 5-42. When a U.S. ship is moored in a foreign port, which of the following factors should be used to determine when passing honors are to be rendered to a flag officer's boat that is passing close aboard?
1. The flag officer can be seen aboard the boat
 2. The boat is displaying the U.S. national ensign
 3. The boat is displaying the flag officer's flag
 4. The boat is displaying the flag officer's miniature flag in addition to the national ensign

5-43. A boat with a flag officer embarked is passing close aboard a moored Navy ship. At what point should "Attention" be sounded aboard the ship?

1. When the boat is within hailing distance
2. When the boat passes the bow or stern of the ship
3. Just before the boat is abreast of the quarterdeck
4. When the boat is abreast of the bridge

5-44. Normally, passing honors are rendered only during the time between

1. sunrise and 1600
2. sunrise and sunset
3. 0800 and 1600
4. 0800 and sunset

5-45. Which of the following flag(s) or pennant(s) serve(s) as the distinctive mark of a Navy ship in commission?

1. Commission pennant
2. Personal flag of a naval officer
3. Command pennant of a naval officer
4. All of the above

IN ANSWERING QUESTIONS 5-46 THROUGH 5-49, SELECT FROM COLUMN B THE FLAG APPROPRIATE FOR THE SITUATION CITED IN COLUMN A.

	A. SITUATIONS	B. FLAGS
5-46.	The yardarm hoist indicating that a general court-martial is in session	1. Union Jack 2. National ensign 3. Command pennant
5-47.	The flag flown from the triatic stay of a ship coming to anchor
5-48.	The flag displayed in port from the JackStaff
5-49.	The flag flown at the gaff of a ship in port during daylight, subsequent to a night arrival, for a period sufficient to establish identify
5-50.	Which of the following procedures is correct for (a) hoisting the national ensign to half-mast and (b) lowering it from half-mast?
	1. (a) First hoist to the truck or peak and then lower to half-mast (b) First hoist from half-mast to the peak, then lower
	2. (a) Hoist directly to half-mast (b) Lower directly from half-mast
	3. (a) Hoist to half-mast, lower, then hoist back to half-mast (b) Lower directly from half-mast
	4. (a) First hoist to the truck or peak and then lower to half-mast (b) Lower directly from half-mast

5-51. What bow insignia should be affixed to the boat of the commanding officer, a lieutenant commander, of a ship?

1. Star
2. Arrow
3. Replica of the officer's command pennant
4. Replica of the commission pennant

IN ANSWERING QUESTIONS 5-52 THROUGH 5-55, SELECT FROM COLUMN B THE INSIGNIA WHICH IS FITTED AT THE PEAK OF THE FLAGSTAFF ON A BOAT WHEN UTILIZED BY EACH OF THE OFFICERS LISTED IN COLUMN A.

A. Officers

B. Insignia

5-52. A lieutenant commander, commanding officer of a destroyer

1. Spread eagle

2. Halberd

3. Ball

5-53. An admiral who is CNO

4. Flat truck

5-54. A vice admiral

5-55. A captain serving as chief of staff

5-56. Which of the following items, not required for dressing ship, is/are required for full-dressing ship?

1. The largest national ensign on board is displayed from the flagstaff
2. National ensigns of uniform size are displayed from each masthead
3. A rainbow of signal flags is displayed from the foot of the jackstaff to the masthead then to the foot of the flagstaff
4. Both 2 and 3 above

5-57. On Memorial Day, a naval station which has no saluting battery shall display the national ensign at half-mast from

1. 0800 to 1200
2. 0800 to sunset
3. 0800 to 1220
4. sunrise to sunset

5-58. Upon passing which of the following monuments would a Navy ship perform passing honors?

1. The Statue of Liberty
2. Washington's Tomb
3. The USS Arizona Memorial
4. Both 2 and 3 above

5-59. During a ship's commissioning ceremony, what event officially places the ship in commission?

1. The commanding officer reads his orders
2. The national anthem is played and the flags are hoisted
3. The quarterdeck watch is set
4. The officer effecting the transfer delivers the ship to the new commanding officer